Inspiration Document

Stevie is all about her family, which consists of her husband and her 3 children, and her mental health. She focuses on her mental health by exercising. She likes to exercise by going to the gym, running around her neighborhood, or playing softball. She has played softball all her life with her love starting from her childhood and her father's love of the sport. She went on to play softball her whole school career and then went on to play co-ed as an adult. She now coaches, alongside her husband, their children's softball, and baseball teams.

Another way she focuses on her mental health is by painting and crafting. She prefers painting to overall crafting but did DIY her entire wedding. She likes to read fiction books in her downtime or listen to country music. She likes to garden and has many plants growing around her house along with a forever-growing backyard summer garden. She likes to use these garden-fresh veggies to cook alongside her husband and create fresh meals for her family.

She has always been passionate about skincare and that's what drove her to open her own business under the Rodan and Field franchise. This opened a much larger world to her and let her develop important relationships. Alongside this, she is also a manager at the local brewery and a retail worker. She loves to work at the brewery because she gets to meet people from all over the world whom she normally wouldn't be able to in our small community.

Her greatest accomplishment is her children and her family. She is proud of the people her children are becoming and the strong bond she and her husband have been able to maintain throughout their long-term relationship.

About me

Stevie is a wife, mom, business owner, manager, server, bartender, athlete, artist, gardener, and music lover, and is passionate about skincare. Stevie's focus is on her mental health and family. She has her best friend and husband, Nate, and her 3 children, which are the center of her world. She enjoys gardening and cooking those garden veggies with her husband. She loves having her family enjoying her food around the dinner table. Her greatest accomplishment is her children and the people they are turning into while being able to maintain a strong bond with Nate. She focuses on her mental health by taking the time to exercise, read, and paint. Exercising regularly is an important part of her life and she stresses that it has increased her mental health tremendously. She also focuses on her mental well-being by reading fiction books and listening to country music. Her goal in life is to create a life with no worries.

She is currently employed as a merchandiser of clothing at a local retailer. She runs her own business selling Rodan and Fields skincare products, and she loves that this job brings her closer to people. She is a manager at the local Brewery and Bar where she gets to meet people from all over the world.

Her hobbies are running, working out at the gym, softball, painting, reading, gardening, and music. She recently has gotten into gardening over the last few years and has a beautiful outside setup of plants and flowers. She started playing softball as a child and hasn't stopped since. She participated in the sport throughout her school career and then played coed as an adult. She now spends her time coaching her children's softball/baseball teams with her husband Nate.
